Accubuilt Announces Redesigned Cadillac S&S and Superior Hearses

Lima, Ohio, May 8, 2008 – Accubuilt, Inc. announces the addition of two new aerodynamically-designed hearses to its funeral vehicle offerings; the S&S Imperial and the Superior Premier. These new models provide an exciting and contemporary look for the S&S and Superior Cadillac hearses. These models expand the tradition of the existing S&S and Superior hearse models, which will continue to be offered for the 2009 model year.

Accubuilt Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Greg Corona indicated that, "These hearses provide the funeral profession with an opportunity to purchase a fresh, new vehicle that complements the tradition of the existing S&S and Superior hearses. The S&S Imperial and the Superior Premier increases our product offerings and represents another innovation to serve the needs of funeral directors worldwide."

Mr. Corona also noted that "This new design effort is the result of a collaborative effort with our Detroit and Lima, Ohio design staff, our Dealer Council and leading funeral directors who contributed to its development. This collaboration represents a continuation of our strategic efforts to meet the needs of the funeral profession. Our recently announced 45-inch wide floor, a patented industry-exclusive, will also be a standard feature in the S&S Imperial and the Superior Premier."

Accubuilt's industry-leading funeral vehicles include the S&S Coach, Superior Coaches and Eureka brands, as well as other high-quality, specialty vehicles manufactured under the DaBryan, Tuscany and Accubuilt brand names.

Accubuilt, Inc. has manufacturing facilities in Lima, Ohio; Springfield, Missouri; and Elkhart, Indiana. The Company's specialty vehicle offerings are certified and approved by the Cadillac Master Coachbuilder program, Lincoln Quality Vehicle Manufacturer program, Ford Truck Quality Program and the National Mobility Equipment Dealers Association.
